

Victorian Terrace House

Newtown, Sydney 1996

info@barrettpinet.com

BARRETT PINET ARCHITECTURE

Schematic Design

Alterations, additions and renovations to an inner city terrace house comprising a new attic bedroom level and extend ground and first floors. At the ground level, the front rooms of the house were to be restored to the victorian original, the new kitchen and dining area modernized, and in conjunction with a landscaped courtyard be well suited to a contemporary urban lifestyle. The first floor has a new bathroom and enlarged rear bedroom and renovated front bedroom. The second floor has a new master bedroom with Juliet balcony, ensuite, built-in cupboards and storage.

